

BANKRUPTCY PETITION REVEALS PRESIDENT OF FIRM HAS DISAPPEARED

W. R. Haynie, Head of Marine Oil Engine Co., Has Been Missing Two Weeks.

With the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Marine Oil Engine Company of No. 30 Church Street, it is discovered that for two weeks its President, William R. Haynie, has been missing. His wife, at Great Neck, L. I., has called in the police and a private detective agency, but without results.

"He went to his office two weeks ago," said Mrs. Haynie, "but failed to return for dinner. The office had a telegram from him the next day, but beyond that we have heard nothing."

The Marine Oil Engine Company is capitalized at $200,000. According to the petition, it has liabilities of $50,000 and assets of less than $1,000. The Corporation Directory gives its Vice President as Samuel J. Shivers of Great Neck, and its Treasurer as Miss Agnes V. Dugan of No. 524 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn; but according to Mrs. Haynie, Shivers is a former employee and Miss Dugan is Haynie's stenographer. Haynie is also President of the Fairfield Shipbuilding Company, organized several months ago, with a capital stock of $100,000. Judge Mayer has appointed Benjamin Swartz receiver for the engine company.

MARSHALL CONTEMPT CHARGES TAKEN UP

House Debates Report of Committee, Recommending That Attorney Be Censured.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The question of whether United States Attorney Snowden Marshall of New York shall be held in contempt of the House and punished for criticizing the Judiciary Sub-Committee's conduct while in New York investigating impeachment charges against him was up for debate in the House to-day. The matter was placed before the House in a report by a select committee recommending that Mr. Marshall be censured.

Final disposition of the case, however, will not be taken before Friday, when Mr. Marshall and Representative Buchanan, who preferred the charges against him, will be heard by the Judiciary Committee. The hearing is at the request of Mr. Buchanan, who insisted that his charges had been sustained, although the Judiciary Sub-Committee had recommended that no further proceedings as to impeachment be had at present.

LOFT ROBBERY FOILED.

Three Prisoners Accused of Stealing $5,000 Worth of Goods.

An inquisitive policeman interrupted a $5,000 robbery of silk goods early to-day from the loft of David Lippert at No. 459 Broome Street, and landed three men, all with police records, in jail. Policeman Donnelly of the Macdonald Street station saw the men loading silk handkerchiefs and stockings into a wagon. They told him that they had a run order for the Grand Central Depot, but knowledge of the English language failed them when he asked for receipts.

The men were Armando Romano, No. 227 East Twenty-ninth Street; Michael Pepe, No. 100 Bayard Street; and Tony Bruno, No. 178 Canal Street.

25 Indicted as Gamblers. The Grand Jury to-day returned twenty-five indictments against persons accused of conducting gambling houses in Manhattan. All of the defendants have been at liberty on bail since their arrest. When arraigned before Judge Mulqueen in General Sessions all the indicted men pleaded not guilty and were continued on their recognizances to await trial.

OLD MAN AND A BOY RUN DOWN BY AUTOS

John A. Maitland, Aged 70, Has Three Ribs Broken—Driver Flees
After His Car Hits Child.

John A. Maitland, seventy years old, of No. 277 West Sixteenth Street, Coney Island, while crossing Surf Avenue near West Fifteenth Street shortly after midnight this morning was knocked down by an automobile owned and driven by Wolf Greenberg of No. 1504 Avenue J, Flatbush. Three of Maitland's ribs were broken, one of his lungs was punctured and his head and face were cut. He is in Coney Island Hospital in a serious condition.

Shortly before Maitland's accident, four-year-old James Carvello, of No. 96 Smith Street, Brooklyn, who had gone to the island with his mother, was knocked down on West Fifteenth Street by an automobile, whose driver put on speed and fled. The boy is in Coney Island Hospital with a fractured rib and internal injuries. Witnesses gave the police the license number of the machine.

Why Men Who Smoke Should Take Gastro-Pepsin Tablets

Every man who smokes knows that at some time or other he is troubled with heartburn and indigestion. Gastro-pepsin tablets contain only such well-known and healthful ingredients as pepsin, pancreatin, bismuth, salivary glands, bicarbonate and ginger. As you know, these elements have been highly recommended by physicians everywhere for all forms of heartburn and indigestion. Almost every night gastro-pepsin tablets revive the natural action of the stomach, so that a few days' treatment is sufficient to restore its natural efficiency. We suggest that every man who is at all troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia, for any reason whatever, begin to take gastro-pepsin tablets at once. Nearly every drug good carries them, but for any reason, you are unable to obtain them promptly, send to the Maitland-Serra Chemical Co., 41 Prospect Place, Brooklyn, enclosing 25¢ or 50¢ for the size box you want.—Advt.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELP

You can keep your hair at its very best by washing it with this simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff and dirt and leaves a clean, wholesome feeling. Just use a teaspoonful of canthox dissolved in a cup of hot water, afterwards rinsing thoroughly with clean water. One find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is untrunked, bright, soft and fluffy, so fluffy in fact that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. All scalp irritation will disappear and the hair will be brighter than ever before.—Advt.
